(b) What churches does it expect to be planted in the next year?

(c) How many of these churches will be in the so-called (desert) areas, particularly the Western, Georges River and Wollongong Regions?

3.5 The Rev Andrew Sempell asked –

For how long has the Primate of Anglican Church of Australia had some sort of paid assistant? How is expenditure on risk assessment determined and what benefits result?

Will the money raised by the Mission Property Committee for the construction of new churches in Greenfield areas need to be repaid by the parishes who conduct ministry in these buildings? If so will the rate of return be determined by a percentage of giving to the church or income gained from the building or a flat rate of repayments?

3.8 The Rev Peter Chung asked –

Could the Provisional Church's levy be waived under the following condition? Church without own property and annual offertory income not exceeding $100,000.

Can the Sydney Anglican Schools Corporation confirm that its schools are not operated for profit? Are there any non-arms length fees or charges such as the “management fees” at Malek Fahd? What steps are taken to ensure that developments between the Corporation and other Diocesan organisations such as Anglicare (eg, Oran Park) do not use school funding for non-school uses?

Synod, noting the report on 12/10 General Synod Assessments and Consultation with the General Synod Standing Committee –

- (a) supports the adoption of the following principles in respect of the finances of the General Synod –
 - (i) surpluses from business activities undertaken by the General Synod across the whole of the Anglican Church of Australia (eg Telstra and Long Service Leave surpluses generated in the Shared Services Fund) should be used to subsidise the constitutional functions of the General Synod as funded through the general assessment,
 - (ii) existing surpluses in the Special Fund should be used to reduce the amount of special assessment payable by those dioceses who choose to pay the special assessment,
 - (iii) no surpluses should be accumulated in the Special Fund in the future,

9.22 Representation of Prison and Hospital Chaplains at Synod

This Synod –

- (a) notes that the Anglicare Assistant Director – Chaplaincy has been invited by the Archbishop to attend Synod under Part 7 of the Synod Membership Ordinance 1995 (and preceding ordinances) since 1975, thereby giving representation to the 5,000 Anglicans who come under the pastoral care of chaplains, many of whom in hospital or prison are unable to attend their local church,

- (b) notes that the Archbishop has declined to invite the Anglicare Assistant Director – Chaplaincy to the 49th Synod, and

(The Rev Nigel Fortescue)

9.24 Gambling in Australia

This Synod again notes the Productivity Commission's report into gambling which reports that –

- (i) there are between 80,000 – 160,000 problem gamblers in Australia, with another 230,000 – 350,000 vulnerable to problem gambling;
- (ii) poker machine users are disproportionately represented among the ranks of Australia's problem gamblers;
- (iii) 41% of the $11.9 billion that Australians lose annually on poker machines comes from problem gamblers.

Therefore Synod again endorses efforts being proposed in Australia's Federal Parliament to reduce the impact and incidence of problem gambling, for example, by the introduction of a compulsory pre-commitment system for poker machine use.

In addition, Synod calls on the NSW Government to reduce its reliance on taxation on gambling.

Synod encourages ministers, synod representatives and other church members to continue to write to their parliamentary representatives in support of such harm minimisation measures.

(Canon Sandy Grant)

(Mr Hans Norved/Mr Tony Willis)

9.28 Humanity and rights of unborn children

In light of the San Jose Articles, launched on 6 October 2011 at the United Nations, which defend the humanity and rights of unborn children and clarify that access to abortion is not a right under international instruments, this Synod –

- (a) affirms that all human life is a gift from God, and, irrespective of race, gender, ability, and socio-economic circumstances, is created in his image, which inherent dignity and value, and accordingly, that ending the life of an unborn child is to be avoided unless the mother's own life is genuinely at risk; and

In welcoming this new parish without property, Synod gives thanks to God –

- (a) for the missionary outreach initiative of the parish of Shellharbour City Centre to plant a new congregation in 2007 into Shellharbour Anglican College, along with their sacrificial concern to nurture and grow that congregational plant until it would stand alone as a separate church within our Diocese;
- (b) for the courage and conviction of the lay planting team originally led by the Rev Mal York who stepped up to the mark, counted the cost and moved their families to plant a new congregation, in a new place, for the sake of the lost;
- (c) for the provision in 2010 of the Rev Rob Sharp and his family to take charge of the congregational plant and skilfully grow it into an evangelistic force in the Shellharbour Anglican College and in the local community along with the growth of the Harbour Church community and their strong partnership in the gospel;
- (d) for the external financial partners who generously contributed resources in partnership with Shellharbour City Centre and for the generosity of the Anglican Schools Corporation, through Shellharbour Anglican College with its head Tony Cummings and School Council, for their mission mindedness in placing the resources of the College at the ongoing disposal of Harbour Church;
- (e) for the global financial crisis which resulted in the government stimulus plan, whereby a new multi purpose hall was built at the college in 2010.
