2. Amendment of the Presentation and Exchange Ordinance 1988

The Presentation and Exchange Ordinance 1988 is amended as follows –

- (a) insert a new clause 9(3) (with consequential renumbering of existing clauses 9(3) and (4)) as follows –
 - “(3) A person who is a prohibited person within the meaning of the Child Protection (Prohibited Employment) Act 1998 is not eligible for election.”; and
- (b) insert a new clause 11A as follows –

“Parish Representatives – Declaration

11A. (1) A person who is nominated for election as a parish representative must within 7 days before or after election as a parish representative make the following declaration –

‘I declare that I am not a prohibited person within the meaning of the Child Protection (Prohibited Employment) Act 1998’.

(2) The office to which a person is elected as a parish representative becomes vacant if that person fails to make the declaration required by this clause.”; and
- (c) delete the word “or” at the end of clause 13(1)(c); and
- (d) delete the matter “.” at the end of clause 13(1)(d) and insert instead the following -

“; or

 - (e) becomes a prohibited person within the meaning of the Child Protection (Prohibited Employment) Act 1998.”.

3. Commencement

- (1) Subject to subclause (2), this ordinance commences on the date of assent.
- (2) Clause 2 commences on 1 February 2006.

I Certify that the Ordinance as printed is in accordance with the Ordinance as reported.
