

PROVINCIAL SYNOD REPRESENTATION ORDINANCE 1986

No. 36, 1986

AN ORDINANCE to repeal The Provincial Synod Election Ordinance of 1886 and to make further provision for the election of representatives to that Synod.

- 5 WHEREAS It is expedient to make further provision for the election of persons to represent the Diocese on the Provincial Synod of the Anglican Church of Australia within the State of New South Wales. NOW the Synod of the Diocese of Sydney HEREBY ORDAINS DECLARES DIRECTS AND RULES as follows:
- 10 1. (1) This Ordinance may be cited as the "Provincial Synod Representative Ordinance 1986".
- (2) The Casual Vacancies Ordinance 1935, the Elections Ordinance 1968 and the Interpretation Ordinance 1985 shall apply to this Ordinance unless the contrary intention appears.
- 15 2. (1) At the first ordinary session of each Synod, there shall be an election of clerical and lay representatives of the Diocese to the Provincial Synod. The representatives so elected shall hold office, subject to the Casual Vacancies Ordinance 1935, until the first day of the first ordinary session of the next Synod.
- 20 (2) The number of persons to be elected shall be the number of representatives determined in accordance with the Provincial Synod Constitution Ordinance 1907 which number shall be determined by the Registrar.
3. If the number of representatives which the Diocese may be entitled to elect or appoint shall be reduced, then
- 25 (a) in the first instance — the person elected by the Standing Committee or the last of the persons so elected, if more than one, who is a representative,
- 30 (b) in the second instance — the person elected pursuant to clause 2 by the Synod or the last of the persons so elected, if more than one, who is a representative,
- (c) in the third instance — the person elected pursuant to clause 2 who received the fewest votes and who is a representative,
- 35 shall cease to be a representative provided that, in the case of competition, the issue shall be determined by lot.
4. (1) In addition to the circumstances listed in clause 1 of the Casual Vacancies Ordinance 1935, a casual vacancy shall arise upon an omission by the Synod to elect a representative or
- 40 representatives, or the Diocese becoming entitled to a greater number of representatives than those for the time being in office.
- (2) Clause 3 of this Ordinance shall apply in relation to the change in the number of representatives affected by the New South Wales Provincial Constitution Canon 1985
